Dr.: What seems to be the problem?

Patient: Oh, my God! It's my stomach.
It's killing me!

D: Where does it hurt the most?

P: Right here! It hurts right here!

D: How long has it felt like this?

P: I felt OK when I woke up, and suddenly, I had this really sharp pain.

D: Do you have a history of stomach pain?

P: No, not really!

D: Have you done anything different?

P: No, I haven't done anything out of the ordinary.

D: Does it hurt when I push here?

P: It's mostly on my right side. Right here!

D: Have you eaten anything unusual lately?

P: No, not that I can remember.

D: We are going to take you to an emergency room right away.

B: Thank you for helping me.
